Vitally Important

The decision is regarded as vitally important, because of the govern-ment's claim that the "patent license agreement" plan was being adopted by many concerns, as a result of the judicial ban upon the "pure trust" plan, as exemplified in the case of the Standard Oil Company, of Ohie; the "holding company" plan, as declared invalid in the Northern Securities case, and the combination of a building company and a manufacturing company, as shown in the Standard Oil and Tobacco cases.

Justice McKenna in his opinion declared that the effect of the agreement was to convert the independent and competitive companies into a combination, subject to rules and regula-

ADOPTS REPORT ON TEMPERANCE

Emphasizes Fact That Church's Position Toward Liquor Is One of Uncompromising Warfare. Sale of Liquor at State Fair Condemned—Appointments To-Day.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] ynchburg, Va., November 18.—The Lynchburg, Va., November 18.—The order of the day before the Virginia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, now in session in this city, this evening was the report of the committee on temperance. Rev. J. W. Biedsoe was president protem of the conference. James Cannon presented the following report on temperance:

"Your committee is of the opinion that it is the wisest policy to concentrate the thought of our people upon two or three matters, which are of vital importance to the temperance cause at the present time. There is a great tendency, when we do not win a complete victory, to ignore, or at a great tenuency, when we do not win a complete victory, to ignore, or at least to minimize, the results which are obtained.

"At the last session of the "At the last session of the annual conference we called upon the Anti-Saloon League of Virginia to press the battle independent of factonal and partisan parties to secure State-wide prohibition for Virginia. The league instituted and carried on a most energetic campalgn, and placed before the General Assembly of Virginia such the General Assembly of Virginla such an array of facts and such monster petitions that there would be no question in the minds of any impartial persons that the people of Virginia demanded the right to vote upon the question of State-wide prohibition. The enabling act was passed by the House of Delegates by a vote of two to one, and was defeated in the Senate by a vote of sixteen to twenty-four, aithough it was claimed at that time, and is believed to be without question at the present time, that a majority of the senatorial districts desired their representives to vote for the enabling act.

change the determination of the temperance people to secure that right. Nor should it be considered an impossibility to secure that right before 1916. The next General Assembly meets in 1914, and if the temperance people of the State do their full duty and send up a House of Delegates which will repeat the action of the House of Delegates in 1912, and if the people will press upon the Senate their demands for concurrent action, it will be difficult indeed for the Senate to refuse to con-

This was all. Only a few people were in the court room, mostly attorneys waiting to argue cases.

With these words, the rights, of the Allens in the courts of this Commonated wealth were exhausted. The appeal wealth were exhausted. The appeal wealth were exhausted. The appeal has been prosecuted and denied, leaving nothing more for the courts to do.

Respite Seems Peomble.

It is believed Governor Mann will grant a respite to the condemned men, because of the fact that only four days were left to them between the time of action by the court and the moment set for their execution on Friday of this week. The Governor has made no announcement regarding this, but the supposition is he will permit days on as to let the men prepare for eternity.

Further than this, it is believed by those who have talked with the Executive, he will not go. He has been approached by men who desire the sentences conmuted to imprisonment for life, but, so far as has been heard, he gave no encouragement whatever, and, in fact, they say, his attitude indicated that would not interfere with the judgment of the courts.

Shoud there be a respite, it is supposed Mirs. Floyd Allen, wife of the elder and mother of the younger prisoner, will come to Richmond to say farewell until eternity.

by Conference on Their Propaganda.

Knowing that President William Howard Taft wants to see the Governors of the several States in regard to his plan for the advancement of Turkish Army Corps, went there with rural credits, and believing that the many of his soldiers after the fall of Governors would be glad to meet the President, Governor William Hodges Mann yesterday extended an invitation to Mr. Taft to attend the Confer ence of Governors, which will be held in Richmond, beginning December 3 The President was absent from Wash ington yesterday and cid not return from New York until midnight, and has not received the invitation. It is hoped to hear from him to-day.

President Taft has sent out letter White House while in this part of meeting. He has given as his reason his desire to discuss with them his recently announced plan for extending suitable credits to the rural popula-tion, especially to the farmers of the country, who do not enjoy the bank-ing facilities of the city business man.

This is realized to be largely a State issue, and this accounts for the President's wish to see the Governors.

Suffrage Leaders Wast to Speak.

The Equal Suffrage League of Virginia is not behind the Fresident—it also wants a chance to talk to the Governor Application has been made to Governor Mann for a place on the program or for an opportunity to appear and advance the cause of those who want equal suffrage. Workers in the cause from other States will also come if the hearing can be granted.

To this request the Governor has responded that he is not in charge of the program. It will be a matter for the conference itself to determine whether or not it wants to hear the fair pleaders for political rights and privileges. There will be Governors of States which have already adopted equal suffrage in the conference, and to these the question may seem stale and one already settled, but to many the proposition will be quite unique.

MONASTIR FALLS BEFORE ATTACKS OF SERVIAN ARMY

Its Capture Greatest Individual Triumph of War.

MAY PROVE DEATH BLOW TO TURKEY

Sultan's Hope of Continued Resistance Must Be Shattered by Surrender of His Macedonian Stronghold-Strange Silence as to Progress of Battle Along Tchatalja Lines.

Belgrade, November 18.—The Turkish fortress of Monastir surrendered this afternoon to the Servian troops.

Fifty thousand Turkish soldiers and three generals laid down their arms. Monastir virtually had been surrounded by Servian troops for several days while Greek troops coming frost the south had cut off the Turkish line of retreat to Ochrida. On Saturday the Servian troops, after desperate fighting throughout the day and night, captured two important heights commanding the city. They then advanced through the morasses upon the interior fortifications which surrendered to-day.
